BETWEEN:

NORTHERN COLLEGE

(here in after called the "Client")

OF THE FIRST PART

and

AWARDED CONTRACT BUSINESS NAME

OF THE SECOND PART

WHEREAS The Proponent shall provide Waste Management and Recycling Services and has submitted a proposal (the "Proposal") to the Client to provide Waste Management and Recycling Services at the Client's premises, (the "Premises") South Porcupine campus, located at 4715 Highway 101 East, Timmins, Ontario; South Porcupine Student Residence located at 4777 Highway 101 East, Timmins, Ontario;

AND WHEREAS the Client has accepted the Proposal and wishes to appoint The Proponent to provide Waste Management and Recycling Services and The Proponent has agreed to accept such appointment, all on the terms and conditions herein contained;

WITNESSES that in consideration of their respective promises herein contained, the parties hereto covenant and agree as follows:

1 Appointment and Term.

The client hereby appoints the Proponent, and the Proponent accepts such appointment, to Waste Management and Recycling Services at the Premises effective the 01 day of April 2012 until the 31 day of March 2015, unless terminated as hereinafter provided. Pricing will be fixed as per the proposal submitted, and subject to annual review beginning 15 day of January 2013. A further term may be approved at the mutual option of the Client and the proponent for a one (1) additional two (2) calendar years, subject to annual review. Either party may at any time terminate this agreement on ninety (90) days' prior written notice.

2 General.

During the execution of this agreement, The Proponent shall advise the Client promptly of:

- I. Any contradiction, discrepancies or errors found or noted in the contract documents.
- II. Supplementary details, instructions or directions that do not correspond with those contained in the contract documents.
- III. Any omissions, or other faults, that become evident which should be corrected in order to execute the work in accordance with good standard practice.

Should The Proponent fail to comply with these requirements, it will be held responsible for any resulting circumstances, conditions, and costs.

3 Services to be provided by The Proponent.

The Proponent shall provide Waste Management and Recycling Services, and shall without limitation, include the following,

- I. Supplying of Waste management/recycling bins
- II. Regular scheduled pick up of both premises

Reference “Appendix A”

- III. Annual reports: By location, number of lifts per bin type and amount of waste (lbs.)

4 Cost to proponent.

The client will be charged a monthly fuel surcharge, along with Reference “Appendix B”, plus 13% HST for the term of this agreement.

5 Canadian Funds.

All prices are to be in Canadian funds. Harmonized sales tax (HST) is applicable. The Proponent may be requested to provide their HST registration number. The Proponent may be required to complete and submit a government of Ontario tax compliance declaration.

6 Terms of Payment.

At negotiated dates, the Proponent shall submit an invoice; Invoices are exclusive of HST, which will be shown as an additional cost on all invoices. Unless otherwise provided herein, The Proponent shall pay all applicable government taxes.

- I. Payment shall be made to the Proponent within thirty (30) days from the date of invoice, or as negotiated.
- II. No changes to the agreement price will be processed until a written change order has been issued by the Proponent to the Client’s Purchasing Officer.
- III. The accuracy of the invoices will be verified by the Client before payment is made to the Proponent under the terms and conditions of the agreement.

7 No Volume Guarantees or Exclusivity Provisions

Except as otherwise expressly set out in the Agreement Northern College makes no guarantee or commitment with respect to the amount or value of the Deliverables to be procured by Northern College pursuant to the Agreement.

8 Trade Secrets and Proprietary Information.

During the term of this agreement, the Proponent, or personnel employed/subcontracted by The Proponent, may have access to or become privy to information that the Client regards as sensitive or that is subject to information and privacy legislation or the Client’s privacy policies. The Proponent shall not use or disclose any such confidential information directly or indirectly, during or subsequent to the term of this agreement, and shall instruct its employees or subcontracts not to use, disclose, photocopy, or otherwise duplicate and/or remove any material found on the Client’s premises.

- I. The Proponent is responsible for any breach of confidentiality or violation of the privacy legislation as it relates to the nature of the environment or private documents that may be seen by personnel.

During the term of this agreement, the Client may have access to or become acquainted with various trade secrets and confidential information of the Proponent. The Client shall not, and shall instruct its employees not to use, disclose, photocopy or otherwise duplicate or remove any such trade secrets or confidential information directly or indirectly during or subsequent to the term of this agreement.

9 Patent Rights and Infringements.

During the term of this agreement the Proponent shall be subject to the following clause: If any action is brought against the Client or its assignee based on a claim that the Client's use of this product infringes a patent or copyright, the Proponent shall defend such action at its expense and pay the cost and damages awarded in any such action and all prior claims relating to such action. In the event that an injunction shall have been obtained against the Client's use of the product because of patent or copyright infringement, or, if such product is likely to become the subject of a claim of infringement, the Proponent shall replace the same, to the satisfaction of the Client, so that it becomes non-infringing, or grant the Client credit for such product, accepts its return and pay all costs of such replacement or return.

10 Workplace Safety and Insurance Board coverage (WSIB)

The Proponent clearly understands and agrees that it is not, nor is anyone hired by it, covered by the Client under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act S.O. 1997, c.16, Sch.A., as amended and the proponent shall be responsible for and shall pay all dues and assessments payable under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act, the Employment Insurance Act, S.C. 1996, c.23 or any Act, whether Provincial or Federal, in respect of itself, its employees and operations, and shall furnish the Client, if requested, with such satisfactory evidence that it has complied with the provisions of any such Acts. If the proponent fails to do so, the Client shall have the right to withhold payment of such sum or sums of money due to it that would be sufficient to cover its default and the Client shall have the right to pay same. The Client is not the employer of the proponent or its personnel under any circumstances whatsoever.

The proponent shall, both prior to commencing Work under the Contract and within 60 days of the expiration of the Contract date, submit a letter of good standing from the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board to the Client that all assessments or compensation have been paid, and the Client may, at any time during the performance, request a further declaration that all such assessments of compensation have been paid.

The proponent must have valid Workplace and Safety Insurance Board Coverage and will be required to submit a current Clearance Certificate within seven days of award of the Contract.

11 Insurance and liability provisions

General liability insurance including bodily injury and death, personal injury, property damage including loss of use thereof, contractual liability, non-owned automobile liability, owners' and contractors' protective, products and completed operations and employers' liability, with coverage including the activities and operations conducted by the proponent and those for whom the proponent is responsible for in law. These policies will all (1) be written on an occurrence basis with coverage for any one occurrence or claim of at least $1,000,000 (2) name the Client as additional named insured (3) contain a severability of interests clause and cross liability clauses and (4) have a deductible amount of not greater than $1,000 per incident or occurrence.

It is expressly understood and agreed that the College shall in no way be responsible for any theft, disappearances or other misappropriation of any of the equipment to be supplied by the Proponent, nor for the theft, disappearance, or other misappropriation of monies, or any other property of the Proponent wherever located. To this effect, the Proponent will maintain adequate insurance to protect itself in the event of the above-noted occurrences.

The Proponent shall pay all insurance premiums relating to coverage requirements set out above. The proponent will reimburse the Client for any damages occasioned to the Client's equipment and premises through the neglect of wilful act of the Proponent and its employees. All policies of insurance shall be (1) written with an insurer licensed to do business in Ontario (2) in form and content acceptable to the Client acting reasonably (3) be non-contributing with, and will apply only as primary and not excess to any other insurance available to the College and (4) contain an undertaking by the insurers to notify the Client in writing not less than 30 days before any material change, cancellation, lapse or termination of the policies.

Before the commencement of any operations hereunder, and within seven working days of award of the Contract, the Proponent shall provide the Client a completed Certificate of Insurance evidencing compliance with the policy requirements as detailed above.

Failure to provide the aforementioned insurance will result in the withholding of payments or at the sole option of the Client, forfeiture of the Contract

12 Termination.

Either The Client or the Proponent may terminate the contract for any reason on ninety (90) days notice in writing to the other party.

Should a termination notice be given by either Client or the Proponent then the Proponent shall continue to provide the services as outlined in the contract documents during the ninety (90) day termination period. Failure by The Proponent to comply with these conditions may result in the Client deducting money from The Proponent invoices, and/or billing The Proponent; to ensure that the services as outlined in the contract documents continue to be provided without additional cost to the Client so that the building remains at an acceptable standard.

In case the Proponent defaults or delays in executing the work satisfactorily, the Client shall give notice to The Proponent in writing that the Proponent has made such default. Should the Proponent fail to remedy satisfactorily such defaults without delay, or should The Proponent become insolvent or abandon the work or otherwise fail to observe the provisions of the Contract then in any part of such cases, the Client may immediately take the work or portions thereof out of The Proponent hands and employ person or persons such as he may see fit to complete the work so taken over. In any case, the Proponent shall be chargeable with and remain liable for all loss or damage which may be suffered by the Client by reason of such default, and shall be liable to the Client for the cost of doing any such work over and above contract price thereof.

13 Taking the Work out of The Proponent's Hands.

In any of the following cases, the client may, without any other authorization, take all or any portion of the work out of the Proponent's hand and may employ whatever means are necessary to complete the Services;

- I. Where the Proponent has defaulted or delayed commencing or in executing the work or any portion thereof to the satisfaction of the Client and the Client has given notice thereof to The Proponent and has by such notice required The Proponent to put an end to such default of delay, and such default or delay continues after such notice was communicated;
- II. Where the Proponent has defaulted in the completion of the work, or any portion thereof, with the time limit of such completion required by this agreement;
- III. Where the Proponent has become insolvent;
- IV. Where the Proponent has committed an act of bankruptcy;
- V. Where the Proponent has abandoned the work;
- VI. Where the Proponent has made an assignment of the agreement without the required consent;
- VII. Where the Proponent has allowed unacceptable contract management, staff supervision, or excessive staff turnover to occur;
- VIII. Where the Proponent has otherwise failed to observe or perform any of the material provisions of the agreement

14 Comply with Laws.

During the term of this agreement the Proponent shall comply with all applicable statutes, laws, by-laws, regulations, ordinances, notices and orders whether Federal, Provincial, Municipal or otherwise, at any time in effect during the currency of this contract. If the attention of The Proponent is called to any such violation on the part of the Proponent, or of any person employed or engaged by the Proponent, the Proponent shall immediately desist from and correct such violation.

15 Prohibition against Gratuities.

The Proponent must certify that no executive or board member of the College, as well as officer, director, agent, or employee of the College has benefited or will benefit financially or materially from this agreement. Any agreement may be terminated by the Client if it is determined that gratuities of any kind were either offered to, or received by any executive or board member of the College as well as officer, director, agent or employee contrary to this policy.

16 Quality and Value.

During the term of this agreement the Proponent shall provide a good standard of service and value to the Client, who shall be the sole judge of the adequacy of such service and value, with power to order such changes as the Client, in its reasonable discretion, may deem desirable.

17 Indemnity.

During the term of this agreement, upon prompt written notice the Proponent agrees to indemnify, defend, and save harmless the Client and their officers, agents, and employees from any third party claims, damages and actions of any kind or nature whether at law or equity, as set forth below.

The Proponent' obligation to indemnify Client shall be limited to those liabilities to the extent arising from the negligence of the Proponent in the performance of its obligations under the agreement. In no event shall The Proponent be responsible for those liabilities arising from the negligence of the Client, its agents or employees.

Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, neither party shall be liable to the other for any consequential, special, indirect or punitive damages, including without limitation any claim for lost revenue or profits.

18 Independent Proponent Status.

The Proponent will be an independent company and this agreement does not create an employment relationship with the Proponent, or with the Proponent' agent, employees or servants.

Notwithstanding the above, the Proponent expressly agrees that the Client has the right but not the obligation to supervise any services performed on its properties for compliance with safety and environmental laws, regulations and guidelines as well as the Clients policies and procedures.

19 Sub-Contracts and Assignments.

No part of the work shall be subcontracted without prior written consent of the Client, or their designate. This agreement shall not be assignable by the Proponent in whole or in part without written consent of the Client.

20 No Implied Obligations.

No implied obligation of any kind by or on behalf of Client shall arise from anything in the contract, and the express covenants and agreements herein contained and made by the Client are and shall be the only covenants and agreements upon which any rights against the Client is to be founded.

21 Rights and Obligations.

The Client, or designate, shall decide whether the work has been performed in accordance with the agreement and whether the labour, materials, tools and equipment used in the execution of the work are adequate for the performance of the work. The Client, may order additional work, dispense with or change any part of the work required by the contract. The Client shall decide whether anything done or not done as a result of directions given under this subsection has increased or decreased the cost of the work to The Proponent and the contract amount will be increased or decreased by an amount as mutually agreed. In reaching a decision the Client may establish and utilize such a system or systems of inspection and rating of the work as it sees fit. The Proponent shall comply with any direction of the Client given under this section 22 Delay, Non-Compliance or Default by The Proponent.

If the Client shall at any time consider the productivity of workmen, quality of tools, equipment or proper materials, respectively employed or provided by the Proponent to be insufficient for the purpose of the said work, the Client may in writing, order The Proponent to employ or provide such additional workmen, tools, and materials as they may consider necessary. In the event that the Proponent does not, within three (3) days, or such longer period as may be fixed by any such order, in all aspects comply therewith, the Client may provide and employ such additional workmen, tools, materials and equipment respectively or employ a Sub-Contractor, and may pay these additional workmen such wages, and for such additional tools, materials, and equipment respectively and to pay the Sub-Proponent such prices as he may think proper; all such amount so paid shall be deducted from the amount of the contract. The Proponent shall be responsible for observation and enforcement of the Clients Rules and Regulations provided to The Proponent in writing as are applicable to his employees.

23 Records.

The Proponent shall during the term of the contract and for the period of one year from the date of completion of the contract maintain and keep full records of estimates of and actual cost of the work together with all proper quotations, contracts, correspondences, invoices, receipts and vouchers relating thereto, and shall make them available for copy, audit or inspection by any person acting on behalf of the Client.

24 Federal/Provincial/Municipal Legislation.

The Proponent shall make itself fully acquainted with all federal, provincial, municipal legislation relating to the work herein specified. The Proponent shall comply with such laws without extra compensation of any nature. The Proponent shall obtain and pay for all permits required for the execution of the work included in these contract documents, and shall pay for all charges incidental to such permits.
