

Fuel Terminal Operator Job Description

Job Type: Full-time:

Responsibilities:

- Operating all Terminal equipment in connection with receiving, storing, transferring, and the loading of petroleum products
- Gauges all storage tanks and takes meter readings for all products on a daily basis
- Perform all required maintenance and compliance inspections and logs as appropriate
- Ensure that all terminal equipment, including safety devices and systems, are functioning properly and report any and all equipment failures to supervisor
- Communicate product outages and equipment downtime to appropriate individuals
- Participate in emergency situations as required in the Emergency Policies
- Maintain a clean site
- Follow all Safety rules and regulations and wear required PPE

Qualifications and Skills:

- Ability to work outside for prolonged periods of time in varying weather conditions
- Ability to work overtime as necessary
- Ability to work flexible schedule, including evenings, weekends, and/or holidays
- Excellent customer service, interpersonal, and communication skills
- Strong team player with the ability to work independently
- Ability to clearly communicate written and verbal reports

Experience/Education:

- High School Diploma/ GED
- Industry experience preferred/an asset
- Possess and maintain a valid driver's license

Potential Salary: $25.00 per hour to start

As an Employer we are committed to diversity and an inclusive workplace. We will recruit the best qualified candidates based on skills, experience, qualification, and competencies required for the position.

Interested candidates are encouraged to submit a resume outlining their qualifications and work experience to:

Email: gary.loft@originaltradersenergy.com

Location: Atikameksheng/Sudbury